Dear Parents of Senior/Junior Students:

In accordance with the “No Child Left Behind Act of 2001” signed by President Bush on January 8, 2002, the branches of the U.S. Armed Services may have access to a list of names, addresses and phone numbers of our school’s students who are 16 years of age or older.

However, if a student or parent does not wish the school to make that information public, we may comply with that written request. Therefore, if you do not wish our school to communicate this information to branches of the Armed Services, please sign the reverse side of this form and return it to the guidance office as soon as possible. We must have your requests no later than September 14, 2018.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Brian M. Lynch".

I understand the “No Child Left Behind Act of 2001” requires that schools provide access to a list of names, addresses and telephone numbers of our school’s juniors and seniors. I also understand that I, as a parent, can opt not to have my child’s name included on such a list. Therefore, I am notifying you that I do not want my child’s name communicated to branches of the Armed Services.
